1. Czechoslovakia under Benes and Hungary under Nagy are two examples what results from aligning with Soviets. There can be no comparison between landing of Marines at request of chief of state and the Soviet armies which entered Hungary two years ago.
 2. US troubled and embarrassed by landings in Lebanon, want to retire to make way for UN. On other hand, Russians forade UN access to Hungary and unloosed wave of extermination and tortures.
- F. Iraq. "We cannot say that it was a revolution inspired from abroad... I knew certain members of the new government... all complained to me about the fallen regime, but I know that they have no leaning toward Russia or Communism...That is why I recognized so quickly the Iraqi Republic."
- G. United States must reconsider its policy toward Near East. It must cease supporting colonialist France in Algeria, or similar regimes such as that which existed in Iraq.
1. American can exert greater influence on its allies; she is in a position to impose solutions on them, but remains solicitous of France.
 2. Algerian people suffer martyrdom under American bombs all because America does not dare to employ firm and trenchant language forceful enough to oppose error and passion.
 3. America must apply new policy unfailingly.

4. If America despairs of Near East and Africa and retires to its tent, renounces its bases, and abandons all the world, 24 hours would not pass before Russian armies would have occupied Western Europe "which enjoys acting as spoiled children."

H. I am not a creature of America and am insensible to fear and temptation. "What I tell you is the undisguised truth. I do not hesitate to criticize America when it is necessary."

IV. Members Tunisian cabinet somewhat startled by Bourguiba's vigor in defending US motives in Lebanon and attacking USSR. Shook heads in wonderment; said: "what a man--what courage--he is unique among Arab leaders."

A. After speech, American ambassador approached by leader of Tunisian women's organization who remarked: "We are now more exposed than ever. We must absolutely have US arms to defend ourselves. FLN could attack us at any moment."
